Woman Who Was Plaintiff in Sensational Suits Now in City Jail.

The National Guard of Utah will go to camp near Heber City in Provo canyon August 2. Other sites were suggested, but the Heber City one was selected because it offered the best facilities for an ideal camp. The Heber City commercial club will provide various amusements for the militia during the ten days' encampment.

The site is an ideal one in an open valley presents itself for practice marches and target range. There is a fine target range for the artillery. There will be plenty of diversions, and the camp is on the banks of the Provo river, offering the best of fishing and boating.

This year will be the sixtieth anniversary of the National Guard of Utah. The militia companies from Salt Lake, Ogden, Mant, Mount Pleasant, Richfield, Ephraim, the First battery, the signal corps and the hospital corps. The camp is in excellent condition, most of the organizations being filled with volunteers and these will be eagerly awaiting the annual encampment. The militia will draw $1.50 a day, according to their rank.

WANK TAKES CHARGE OF STEEL CORPORATION

NEW YORK, July 10.—Business in the steel offices of the United States Steel corporation was moving along in its usual manner today when a young man named C. C. Piper of Atlanta, Ga., walked briskly into Chairman Gary's room and announced that he was in charge of the corporation's affairs. He followed his declaration by a meeting of the board of directors.

The executive force overcame the surprise and taken to Bellevue for examination. It is supposed he was overcome by heat.

Edith Evans, alias Edith Clifford, plaintiff with the past few years in a $50,000 breach of promise suit against prominent men, was booked at the police station last night on a vagrancy charge.

Miss Evans, who came here from England some years ago, where she was a professional nurse, first broke into the city by suing Dr. William McEnery of San Francisco for $50,000 for breach of promise. The suit was filed against Dr. McEnery, when he came to Utah to attend to business matters connected with the death of his wife, who was the widow of David C. McLaughlin, a widely-known mining man of Park City. The suit did not come to trial and it is understood that Dr. McEnery fled it by paying Miss Evans $3000. She alleged that McEnery had promised to marry her in London, England, but that he met Mrs. McLaughlin there and married her instead.

After the settlement of the McEnery suit, Miss Evans went to Los Angeles, where she later filed a $50,000 breach of promise suit against a banker of that city. This suit did not come to trial, but as to whether or not Miss Evans profited financially from the action is not known.

Miss Evans was walking upon the streets last night, when she was taken into custody. She registered as Edith Clifford and refused to say anything further than that she was on her way east.

LOSS OF VALUABLE RING IS REPORTED TO POLICE

The loss of a ring set with turquoise and surrounded by fifteen diamonds, valued at $500, was reported to the police yesterday morning. Frank Eschom, agent for the McIntyre building, 3 Ivanhoe apartments, reported the matter to the police and it found the ring is being returned to him.

Mr. Eschom said last night the costly jewel had been lost Saturday evening by an eastern woman acquaintance who was visiting in Salt Lake and who does not wish her name mentioned in the matter. The loss, he said, occurred between the Semiah Louvre and the corner of State and South Temple streets.

There is no mystery in the matter," said he last night, "and we do not believe the ring was stolen. It was rather loose on the finger of the owner and she believes it must have fallen to the pavement, as at the time she was not wearing her gloves."

CARPENTER IS ARRESTED AND HELD ON SUSPICION

Paul Ekland, a carpenter, was arrested yesterday by a member of the local detective department on suspicion of being implicated in the robbery of a Greek jewelry store in the west side about a week ago. Shortly after the burglary was reported to the police suspicion fell upon three men who were working upon the construction of an Italian rooming house being American Consul Edward Adams. The three men escaped before the arrests could be made. Ekland has been identified as one of these men.

According to his report a branch of the organization will be placed at the port of Honolulu, Hawaiian Islands. At the afternoon session committees were appointed.

UNITED STATES SAID TO HAVE INTERFERED

PARIS, July 10.—The Echo de Paris affirms on what it says is good authority that the United States had notified Germany that the establishment of a German colony on the coast of Morocco would gravely injure American interests. According to the paper the United States sent such a note to Germany last week.

The United States government took the same point of view as England, and was ready to act in concert with the London cabinet.

GEORGIA LEGISLATURE TO ELECT U. S. SENATOR

ATLANTA, Ga., July 10.—On the eve of the balloting for United States senator in the Georgia legislature the general opinion prevails that there will be no election as the result of the first day's balloting.

Friends of Governor Hoke Smith, who heretofore predicted his election on the first ballot, continued up to the last minute to strengthen their forces.

INSANE PATIENTS BEAT AND BITE ATTENDANTS

GALLIPOLIS, Ohio, July 10.—Several attendants and patients were badly injured in a riot which broke out in College "I" at the Ohio hospital for epileptics today. Five insane patients started the trouble.

Attendant B. L. Kenison was terribly beaten and bitten in several places by the patients. He is probably fatally injured. Persons in the vicinity came to the aid of the hospital guards and the riot was quelled.
